Security Awareness Day - Physical, Information and Personal Security -   September 10th
       A concept to establish a culture of security without focusing solely on computers.

Cyber Security Day - Computer Security -   October 31st and April 4th
       Intended to raise the public's awareness of cyber-security issues and promote safe online practices.

Colleges and Universities Recognize Cyber Security Day with Campus Events -   April 4th
       Colleges and universities across the country plan to raise awareness about Internet safety and computer security issues.

International Computer Security Day -   November 30th
       Globally recognized event setup to inform computer user of the significance of computer security.